What to do with the Transducer?

by MiaQc

Summary

Short interactive story/Choose Your Own Adventure. It have 5 endings. I made it with Twine.

Petey borrows Alana's Transducer. What will he do with it?

- A translation of Que faire avec le Transkinèse? by MiaQc

Start.

Petey has always been fascinated by Alana's Transducer. Although the last time he used it could have cost him his life, he's borrowing (not to mention stealing) it again. What will he do with it?

Throw it in the trash.

Hide it somewhere.

Use it.

Throw it in the trash.

Petey throws the Transducer in the trash. After all, it is a very dangerous object. When Alana and Jenny return home, it doesn't take long to discover that the Transducer is missing. Petey is quickly scolded by his older sister. He goes to retrieve the Transducer from the trash. Jenny laughs at him because his hands now stink. Alana tells him never to do that again. Petey nods in agreement.

MEH ENDING: In The Trash

Hide it somewhere.

Petey hides the Transducer and returns to play. When Alana and Jenny return home, it doesn't take long to discover that the Transducer is missing. Petey, wanting to avoid his big sister's wrath, searches everywhere, but he can't find the Transducer. Yet he's sure he remembers the hiding place. He, Alana and Jenny turn the house upside down. They find the Transducer, but the crystal is broken. Alana, who usually controls her emotions, cries. Jenny screams in anger. Petey runs for his room. The Transducer is broken. There is no way to fix it.

BAD ENDING: Broken Transducer

Use it.

Petey will use it. He puts a plate on the floor, puts the Transducer on his forehead, and concentrates. What emotion crosses his mind?

Joy.

Calm.

Anger.

Joy.

Petey feels happy. The Transducer crystal turns blue, flickers, and a blue beam manifests. Unfortunately, the beam is unstable and Petey cannot levitate the plate. Petey removes the Transducer, sulks, and puts it back where he found it.

OK ENDING: Attempt With The Plate

Calm.

Petey feels calm. The Transducer's crystal turns pink, flickers, and a pink beam manifests. Without controlling its range, Petey shoves the beam onto a withered plant. The plant begins to heal. Surprised, Petey breaks his concentration, causing the pink beam to disappear. Satisfied with what he has done, Petey removes the Transducer and puts it back where he found it.

NICE ENDING: Plant Partially Healed

Anger.

Petey feels angry. The Transducer's crystal turns red, flickers, and a red beam manifests. The beam causes the plate to overheat and explode. Petey gets pieces in his face and he screams in pain. When Alana and Jenny come home, they find the boy on the floor, pieces of dishes stuck in his flesh, blood on his face. Jenny screams and Alana, seeing the Transducer on Petey, takes it from him to heal him. This is going to be difficult, as Alana has to remove the pieces from his face before closing the wounds. Petey cries with pain.
